

Probationary Employee Training Program

EMS PERIOD 2

Employee name	Station/Shift	Date
SKILL	SIGNATURE	DATE
Treat a impaled chest according to local protocols.
Complete a orientation on what duties and responsibilities you are to do for the AFRA medic on various EMS calls.
Use EMRC to conduct a BLS consult with a hospital.
Relay patient transport information to a hospital via MDC and radio (EMRC and MC 800 MHz radio system).
Complete a medic unit orientation (3 rd person) program as established by the first due medic unit to the employees' assigned station. Orientation must include IV set-up, EKG monitor set-up, CPAP, and airway management kit set-up at a minimum.
Demonstrate knowledge of all EMT-B protocols and skills.
Demonstrate how to call EMRC to verify hospital status.
Demonstrate how to treat a patient with a impaled object in the chest area.
Demonstrate the ability to utilize the various splints used on the ambulance, to include: Tibia splint Elbow splint.

Scoop stretcher. Hip splint. Forearm splint. Clavicle splint
-----------------------------------------------------------------------	--	--

Written Assignments

A. EMS Operations

1. Describe the procedure for restocking IV solutions on an ambulance.
  2. Explain Montgomery County procedures for the daily checkout of an AED.
  3. Describe the procedure followed when medical equipment is left with a patient at a trauma center.
  4. Explain the procedure for providing emergency care to a conscious minor.
  5. Explain the responsibility of the EMT-B on an ambulance in the following situations:
    - a) On the scene of an ALS incident prior to the arrival of a medic unit
    - b) On the scene of an ALS incident with the medic unit fifteen minutes away from the scene and an ALS first-responder unit just arriving.
    - c) When receiving a “no-code” order from an on-scene physician.
    - d) On the scene of a cardiac arrest involving a 93-year old male with bystander CPR in progress.
    - e) On the scene of an allergic reaction to an insect sting involving a 22-year old male.
  6. Describe how to perform triage on the victims of a multi-casualty incident using START RPM.
  7. Explain the patient priority classification system (clinical priority), and provide three examples of each priority.
  8. Describe the Presumed Dead on Arrival criteria used during patient assessment for resuscitation.
  9. Describe the procedures to follow when dispatched to an assault incident where the scene is not yet secure.
  10. Describe the treatment differences between a DNR-A and DNR-B patient and give one example of each and needed documentation.
  11. Identify those persons who can obtain confidential patient information and describe the process by which they can obtain a copy of an EPCR report.
-

---

Probationary Employees' printed name

Date

---

Probationary Employees Signature

Date

---

Station Officers' printed Name

Date

---

Station Officers' Signature

Date